CADETS and JUNIORS
WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS
RIMINI - ITALY
6-14 SEPTEMBER 2014

WAKO Acting President Mr. Espen Lund's OFFICIAL INVITATION

TO ALL WAKO MEMBERS

Dear Friends,

I am pleased to inform you that our next WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS (all styles) regarding our best CADETS and JUNIORS will be held in RIMINI (ITALY) at the same beautiful sport complex, 105 Stadium, where WAKO Bestfighter World Cup used to successfully take place on the previous years.

The World Championships will be held from 6th to 14th SEPTEMBER 2014.

The good advantage to have our event on those early weeks of the month at a seaside place is that the whole town will be alive, since in the first weeks of September they are still on full holiday season! The weather in Rimini is still normally very nice on that period, and so all competitors, officials, fans and families will be able to spend a pleasant week not only in a sport-hall: everybody will be able to enjoy a summer situation, with umbrellas on the beach and shops open for all tourists.

We expect record numbers once again this year, so please register your team early and we look forward hosting you all in beautiful Rimini.

Welcome!

Espen Lund
WAKO Acting President

CADETS and JUNIORS
WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS
RIMINI - ITALY
6-14 SEPTEMBER 2014

Rimini, Italy

Rimini, often referred to as the capital of Italian seaside tourism and nightlife, is one of Italy's most popular beach resorts and one of the largest in Europe. It has 15km of fine sandy beach with top-rate bathing facilities. The seaside promenade is lined with restaurants, hotels, and nightclubs. The city itself has an interesting historic center, Roman ruins, and museums. Film director Federico Fellini was from Rimini.

Rimini Location:

Rimini is on Italy's east coast, about 200 miles south of Venice, on the Adriatic Sea. It's in the Emilia Romagna region of northern Italy. Nearby locations include Ravenna, the city of mosaics, the republic of San Marino, and Le Marche region.

Rimini Transportation:

Rimini is on Italy's east coast rail line between Venice and Ancona. Trains go to Bologna and Milan. The station is between the beach and historic center. Buses go to Ravenna, Cesena, and local towns. Federico Fellini Airport is just outside town.

Driving can be difficult, especially in summer. Local buses run to the beach areas, train station, and historic center. The free blue line bus connects the disco area west of town to the main beach area. In summer, some buses run all night. Bicycling is a great option for getting around town and to the beaches, too. There are bike rentals around the beaches and some hotels offer free bicycles to guests.

Rimini Lido, Beaches, and Baths:

Marina Centro and Lungomare Augusto Murri are the center of beaches and nightlife. Beaches spread north and south with those farther from the center more family oriented. A seafront promenade runs along the coast. Many of the beaches are private and include cabanas, umbrellas, and beach chairs for a day use fee.

Rimini Terme is a thermal spa on the sea with treatment facilities, four heated salt water pools, and a wellness center. It's set in a park with fitness trail, beach, and playground.

Rimini Nightlife:

Rimini is considered by many to be the capital of Italian nightlife. The central beach front area, especially along Lungomare Augusto Murri and Viale Vespucci one block inland, is teeming with bars, pubs, night clubs, arcades, and restaurants, some open all night. Rock Island is near the Ferris wheel on a little point out in the sea. The big discos are generally in the hills west of town. Some of them offer shuttle service and the blue line free bus connects discos to the main beach area.

Federico Fellini:

Federico Fellini, the famous movie director, came from Rimini. Several of his movies, including Amarcord and I Vitelloni were set in Rimini. The Grand Hotel Rimini was featured in Amarcord. Murals commemorating Fellini and some of his movie characters can be seen in Borgo S. Giuliano, one of the oldest districts and a favorite haunt of Fellini.

Rimini Top Sights and Attractions:

Besides beaches and nightlife, Rimini has a good historic center and is a city of art. Most of these sights are in the historic center.

- Roman Rimini dates from 268 BC and there are several Roman remains. The main town gate, Arco d'Augusto, was erected in 27BC. There's a 62 meter long Roman bridge, Ponte di Tiberio, that was built in 21AD and part of a 2nd century Roman amphitheater that once held over 10,000 spectators.
- Piazza Cavour is the main square, dating from the Medieval period, where you'll find government, socializing, and market day on Wednesday. In the center of the square are a statue of Pope Paul IV and the circular Pignafountain built in 1543 incorporating some Roman remains. Around the square are several interesting buildings including the 13th century Palazzo dell'Arengo, the town hall, the old fish market, and neoclassical theater, Teatro Amintore Galli.

Behind the theater is the 15th century fortress, Castel Sismondo, used for cultural events.

- Piazza tre Martiri is the site of the old Roman Forum. In the square are the early 16th century Tempietto of Saint Anthony, and the clock tower, built in 1547 but with a clock face from 1750. There's also a 16th century column commemorating Julius Caesar.

- The Malatesta Temple, Tempio Malatestiano, is Rimini's best monument and an important example of Italian Renaissance. A marble casing envelopes the original medieval church. The many art treasures inside include a Giotto painting from 1312, frescoes by Piero della Francesca, and sculptures by Duccio. Pope Pius II called it a temple of devil worship and condemned it.
- S. Agostino, a Romanesque-Gothic church, dates from 1247 and has important art works and frescoes inside. Its 55 meter tall bell tower is the tallest in town.
- The City Museum, Museo della Citta, is housed in a former convent and 40 rooms filled with more than 1500 art works. The archaeology section focuses on Roman finds and the Pinacoteca has Italian art from the 11th through 20th centuries.
- Cineteca, the film library, has a collection of movies related to Rimini and Fellini memorabilia. Italian movies are shown on Friday nights.
- Viserba, 4km away, is an old fishing port and popular holiday resort. The popular park, Italia in Miniatura, Italy in Miniature, has 272 Italian architecture scale reproductions representing all of Italy's regions. From Rimini train station, take bus number 8.
